baby's advent practically painless. It gives the mother strength to nurse her child. It cures diseases peculiar to women and cures them permanently.

There is no alcohol, opium, cocaine or any other narcotle in "Favorite Prescription." It is purely a vegetable preparation and cannot disagree with the weak-set constitution.

Mrs. Emerson Allen, of Dorset, Ontario Co., ont., writes: "I can truly say that I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the best I have ever used. I was in very poor health for a long time, dating from the birth of my little girl. I tried different factors and different medicines. I derived very much more benefit from your medicines than from any other I have ever used. I took four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and three bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I always keep the 'Pellets' in the house."

FORTUNES FOR MOSBY'S MEN. The following interesting story, according to which some $4,000 or $5 000 are coming to each of the survivors of Mosby's command, if there are about 400 of them living, was written by a well known Virginian, and alluded to in yesterday's Gaz tie. There is great joy among the remnant of the Mosby band of guerrillas. Baron R. bert von Rosseau is going to bequeath his for-ture to his former comrades in arms. He came to this country at the beginning of the civil war to see service of the most scrive description, and Gene-ral J. E. B. Stuart advised him to at-tach himself to Mosby's command, as there promised to be a good deal of running one way and another in that ection of the Confederate army. The Baron was a splendid looking of-ficer, fresh from the general staff of the Prussian army. His equip-ment was a gaudy uniform and a gold mounted sabre. Mosby lent him a spiri ed roan horse, that had been captured from the enemy, and instructning of the civil war to see service of gold mounted sabre. Mosey feat alm a spiri ed roan horse, that had been captured from the enemy, and instructed him in the art of dashing into a group of surprised Yawkeee, with his pistol popping, then disappear magically, etc. In the first encounter the Baron conducted himself nobly, but forset the disappearing part of the drama. Lustead of wheeling his horse to run away, as the Moseyites were educated to do, he dropped his pistol, and, drawing his toy sabre, set about to cut off every head in sight, to pierce lungs, and to disambowel all who resisted. Presently he was alone among the ficing troopers in bine, while the Moseyites, having collected the booly, were scurrying through the woods, every devil for bimself. How he eccaped death remains a mystery. His chief regret was that he had no reminder of the melce in shape of a scar. In broken English he informed his comrades that he would the helf his fortuna to return to

It was a close call, but he got through all right, and went back to Prussia to fight for his King in the seven weeks' war between the Prussians, Austrians, and Italians in 1866, and four years later in the Franco-Prussian war, distinguished himself at St. Remey and Courcelles. Several hundred Mosby men still live, move, and have their being. Only a few saved their hooty; therefore, the number of millionaires among them is not large. Some carry builets in their bodies yet; some are without hair; some are too old to work; some want to ge married; all have huge stock of reminiscences, but the marke for that commodity seems to have tailed off. So, then, the $2,000,000, or thereaboute, of Baron Robert von Rosseau is a glorious windfall.

HICKS FOR FEBRUARY.

The first storm period in February is central on the 4th, covering the 21d and 7th. About Sunday the 3rd, to Wednesday the 6th, will be central days of marked disturbance. High gales, with possible danger, need not surprise in southerd and central sections, but the period will culminate in heavy sleet and snow, a high barometer, and rushing, bizzardous winds down from the northwest.

Wintry, disagreeable weather will follow after these storms quite up to the reactionary storm days central on the 10th and 11th. On and about these mays there will be marked changes to falling barometer, warmer weather and more storms of rain and snow. Another decided change to colder, with higher barometer and northwest winds, with the result at the close of these reaction-

The disturbances beginning about the 16th, 17th and 18, will not subside until efter the 19 h and 20 h. The hardest storms may be expected from about Monday the 18th to Wednesday the
